

Bountiful Blooms

by Sherri & Chelsi

Henry David Thoreau said, “Summer passes into autumn in some unimaginable point of time, like the turning of a leaf.” Our Bountiful Blooms collection re-creates that turning point when the rich colors of Summer blend easily into the subtle hues of Fall. This transition in the beautiful desert land where we live brings a lovely mixture of thriving florals, changing colors, and perfect weather. It’s impossible not to savor this incredible season and become swept up in the bountiful joys it brings. We are smitten with this group and know you’ll love creating with Bountiful Blooms!
